Location & Area Overview (BD9 – High Demand Zone)

Redbrook Way sits within one of Bradford's most consistently performing residential areas:
Close proximity to Bradford Royal Infirmary (BRI) – strong demand from NHS staff
Excellent access to Heaton Village amenities, shops, cafés, and local services
Well-regarded local schools including Iqra Academy & St Barnabas
Easy connectivity to Bradford City Centre, Manningham Lane & Leeds routes
Nearby green spaces including Lister Park & Cartwright Hall

The BD9 postcode continues to show strong rental demand and capital resilience, particularly for:

Family homes with space and accessibility
Supported living / care-led investments
Energy-efficient properties (EPC B-rated stock is limited and highly desirable)

With increasing pressure on local authority housing and care provision, assets with C2 consent and adaptable layouts are becoming significantly more valuable.

Asking Price: £395,000

A compelling opportunity for both owner-occupiers seeking long-term family living and investors targeting supported living or care-based income streams.
